Skatteetaten

Notification of withholding tax on share dividends

The form must be submitted by private limited companies, public limited companies and similar that deduct withholding tax on share dividends, dividend compensation, and interest on equity certificates.

Skatteetaten
Postboks 9200 Grønland
0134 Oslo
Tel. +47 800 80 000

You can find a guide on how to complete the form on page 2.

1. About the company

Organisation number:	Name of company:
Contact person:	Telephone number:

2. Sender (if other than the company)

Name:
Postal address, country:
Contact person:	Telephone number:

3. When was the dividend determined and paid?

Date of general meeting (dd/mm/yy):
Payment date of dividend/interest (dd/mm/yy):

For a more detailed description, see the guide on page 2.

4. Is the company registered in VPS (the Norwegian Central Securities Depository)?

◉ No ◯ Yes

The deadline to submit the notification of withholding tax is 7 days after the deduction has been made. For VPS-registered companies, the deadline is 1 month after the deduction has been made..

5. Withholding tax on share dividends

You can find the withholding tax rates on the Norwegian Government's website, regjeringen.no.
Contact the Norwegian Tax Administration if you are unsure about the tax rate.

Withholding tax basis (gross dividend) in NOK	Tax rate (%)	Withholding tax amount in NOK
	25	0,00
	20	0,00
	15	0,00
	10	0,00
	5	0,00
	0	0,00
		0,00
		0,00
	TOTAL	0,00

Please note that you must also report information about deducted withholding tax in the shareholder register statement (RF-1086).

6. Date and signature

Here you confirm that the information you have given in the form is correct.

Date (dd/mm/yy):	Place:	Signature by/on behalf of the company:

Has the company made errors in the previous reporting or deduction of withholding tax?

If the company has made errors in the previous reporting or deduction of withholding tax, you must correct this in a separate form: "RF 1005 Corrected notification of withholding tax on share dividends". You can find the form at skatteetaten.no/en/forms/rf-1005-notification-of-withholding-tax-on-share-dividends/.

Skatteetaten

Guide for completing the form

3. When was the dividend determined and paid?

Date of general meeting

Here you fill in the date for when the general meeting or board determined to distribute the dividend.

Payment date

The payment date is normally on the date on which the general meeting or board determines to distribute the dividend unless another payment date is stated in the decision. The payment date cannot be later than 6 months after the decision, see section 8-3 of the Private Limited Liability Companies Act.

4. Is the company registered in VPS (the Norwegian Central Securities Depository)?

We need to know whether or not the shares are registered in VPS because this affects the submission deadlines.

Submission deadline

The deadline for submitting the notification of withholding tax on dividends is 7 days after the withholding tax deduction has been made, see section 8-8-3 of the Tax Administration Regulations.

For companies registered in VPS, the deadline is 1 month after the deduction has been made.

5. Withholding tax on share dividends

Here you enter the gross dividend amount (withholding tax basis) and withholding tax amount for the applied tax rate.

You can read more about the liability to deduct and pay withholding tax on dividend compensation and share dividends to foreign shareholders in sections 5-4a and 10-13 of the Tax Payment Act.

The rules for the assessment of the tax basis and the calculation of the tax can be found in section 9-1, subsection 3, and section 9-2, subsection 2, of the Tax Administration Act.

6. Date and signature

Here you confirm that the information you have given in the form is correct.

How to pay

The deadline to pay the withholding tax is the same day as the deadline to submit the notification.

You must pay to the Norwegian Tax Administration and use a KID number for the payment. You can generate a KID number at skatteetaten.no/en/bank-account-number/. Select “Withholding tax on share dividends” as the tax type.

On the website, you will also find the Tax Administration’s account number and payment information.

Has the company made errors in the previous reporting or deduction of withholding tax?

If the company has made errors in the previous reporting or deduction of withholding tax, you must correct this in a separate form: “RF 1005 Corrected notification of withholding tax on share dividends”. You must submit the corrected notification no later than 3 months after the deadline, and by 31 December of the income year at the latest.

You can find the form at skatteetaten.no/en/forms/rf-1005-notification-of-withholding-tax-on-share-dividends/.